Letter of Support for VERON Hyperbake -ST AB Enzymes GmbH

MAURI, a division of George Weston Foods (GWF) herewith confirms our support to the AB Enzymes' application to Food Standards Australia and New Zealand (FSANZ) seeking approval for the use of VERON Hyperbake - ST enzyme in Australia.

From the scientific evidence provided to GWF, the application of the new enzyme in the baking industry in Australia looks exceptionally positive.

GWF looks forward to expanding our testing of the enzyme in baking applications and sharing the new technology across users of the bakery ingredients category, in the future.

Regards

Technical Director

Appendix 1.2

Formal Request for Treatment of Confidential Commercial Information (CCI)

AB Enzymes respectfully requests that the selected and marked parts of Appendix 13 are treated as confidential information (CCI).

The information contained in Appendix 13 relates to the construction of the production strain, genetic sequences, introduced DNA, and subsequent technology used. The way an enzyme-producing GMM is constructed is state-of-the-art molecular biochemistry that conditions the productivity of the microorganism and the effectiveness of the enzyme in its uses.

This information is exclusive to AB Enzymes GmbH research and development core technologies and is to be treated as confidential for an unlimited period of time.
